

'Active Collaborative Learning for Student Success' Conference

Friday 28th June 2019, The Old Museum, Newton Building, Nottingham Trent University

Time	Agenda
09:30	Arrival, registration and refreshments Open Gallery, Newton Building
10:00	Welcome Address Professor Eunice Simmons , Deputy Vice Chancellor Academic & Student Affairs, NTU
10:10	Outcome 1: project findings Active, collaborative learning reduces, and in some cases, removes gaps in student engagement, attainment and non-continuation Jane McNeil , Executive Dean of Learning and Teaching, NTU Sharon Waller , Head of Learning and Teaching, Anglia Ruskin University Simon Tweddell , Associate Head of School, University of Bradford
11:00	Break
11:15	Outcome 2: active, collaborative learning at scale Considerations for adopting SCALE-UP and TBL at large scale, across an institution, including: Recruiting course teams, working with students, modelling workload, developing teaching spaces, timetabling and space allocation, scalable educational development, management data, operational support, evaluation.
12.15	Lunch, networking and exhibition Open Gallery, Newton Building
13:15	Kirsty Johnson , Access & Participation Manager, OfS and Programme Manager, Addressing Barriers to Student Success Programme
13:45	SCALE-UP Taster	TBL Taster
15:00	Plenary & close
15:15	Optional visit to SCALE-UP rooms Leaving from Old Museum	